A.N.A. AUCTION CATALOGUE SOON

As this is written, the big Auction Sale Catalogue for the ANA Convention is taking shape.

If you are on our regular mailing list you will receive your copy after the middle of July.

If this is the first issue of the BULLETIN, you may not be on our regular list. A post card is suggested to make certain your free copy of the big Auction Catalogue is reserved for you.

More than fifty consignors will be represented in the auction which will feature a variety of U.S. Coins and many outstanding items, some of which have never before been offered.

One of the finest collections of Fractional Currency in the country includes rare errors, specimens and varieties.

Mint Errors, now the rage, will include some beauties—a 1943 Copper Cent, for example.

The Odd and Curious Monies from the famous Gibbs Collection — a collection of over 400 Marraige Medals and coins (to be sold intact!), and a splendid collection of U.S. Patterns will be offered.

Paper Money, Large Cents, Territorials, including an Uncirculated Wass Molitor Slug, Proof Sets, Commemoratives, you name it! Look for this catalogue! You will want to participate in this Sale of the Year!

TERRITORIAL GOLD

(One of our more fascinating series of coins is that pertaining to the early days when private assayers were encouraged to strike gold coins necessary for the transaction of business. Lack of mint facilities and difficulties encountered in transporting gold hampered business; the private moneyers performed a valuable service and these coins remain to remind us of romance of the gold rush days.)

MOFFAT & CO. (John L. Moffat was one of the more important figures in California coinage history being semi-official and operating for the longest period).

$5.00 1849, Extremely fine (ex-W. W. Neil Coll.)

Another 1849 $5.00 Very fine.....

1850 Moffat $5.00 Very fine.....

$10.00 Moffat 1849 Ten D. Variety, Very fine, scarce

AUGUSTUS HUMBERT (Another important person in California gold coinage history, Humbert was U. S. Assayer.)

$10.00 gold 1852, 884 Thous., about fine.....

Another $10.00 1852, 884 Thous. Variety with diagonal reverse die break. Very fine.....

$50.00 1851. 880 Thous. Target reverse. This fascinating octagonal "slug" carries with it the romance of the days of '49. More than any other, the $50.00 gold piece typifies the period and the series of private and territorial gold coinage.....

UNITED STATES ASSAY OFFICE 10.00 1852, 884 Thous. Extremely fine. Scarce in this condition.....

Another, about as nice but not quite.....

$20.00 1853, 900 Thous. Fine-very fine. One of the more popular territorial pieces (perhaps because it is lower priced than most).....

KELLOGG & COMPANY $20.00 1854 Barely circulated. Long Arrows

$20.00 1854, Shorter arrows. Sharp, very fine.....

$20.00 1855. ISCO weak. Fine-very fine, a bit scarcer than the 1854 Kellogg.....

MORMON $5.00 1850 Fine-very fine.....

CLARK GRUBER & CO. PIKE'S PEAK GOLD 2.50 1860, plugged, otherwise about fine.....

$5.00 1850 Very fine.....

Another but date has been tooled, otherwise unusually sharp, about extremely fine.....

$5.00 1861 Sharp, very fine. Ex-Farouk Collection.....

Another 1861 Fine-very fine.....

$10.00 1861 Very fine except for initials scratched on obverse. A real buy at

C. BECHTLER $1.00 28 g. N. CAROLINA Gold dollar. The rarest variety of the Bechtler dollars, without the star. Weak at DOLLA otherwise fine-very fine. An opportunity to acquire a rarity.....

Money Talks

by
A. Kosoff

SENSATIONAL TRIP EAST for the N.Y. Metropolitan Show at the Statler, then to the Central States Convention at Cincinnati.

NEW YORK BLASE about coin shows, it seemed to many, although this A. K. had a boll.

ALMOST 11 YEARS since I left for the Golden West and despite numerous visits to N.Y. always delighted to chat and visit with old cronies.

CONSIGNMENTS FOR BIG ANA SALE brought me right from the start of the N.Y. Show.

AT FIRST THEY were put into the bourse space, then into the hotel's vaults, then it became necessary to ship them home.

HAD TO RETURN TO N.Y. from Cincinnati Show to wind up unfinished business thus extending trip by almost a week.

PACKAGES TRAILED ME home by mail and express—and they kept coming for days forcing me to rent more vault space at the bank—again!

WANT TO HEAR about some of the coins? Okay.

GOT A FEW choice Large Cents. Got some unusual Mint Errors. Got a lot of Proof Sets.

GOT MANY COMMEMORATIVES, got loads of nice U.S. coins. Got some Paper Money.

CANADIAN? YESSIR! Two nice consignments.

ODD-and-CURIOS—100 lots from the Gibbs Collection. Fractionals, the best! And the 1943 Copper Cent—

PATTERNS A FEATURE. Substantial consignment to these interesting bits of numismatic history—attributed, for the first time, according to the new work by Dr. J. Hewitt Judd. (See other columns of this issue for news about the new book).

TERRITORIAL PATTERNS and trial pieces—some never published or offered—will thrill many a collector. And a Spectacular Collection of Marriage Medals.

THIS COULD GO ON AND ON but I need this right hand to write the catalogue, so excuse, please—the catalogue will be in the mails around July 10th.

HARD-WORKING MIKE Kolman announces the opening of a store in the Arcade, in the heart of downtown Cleveland. His brother, Ed, will be associated with Mike. Good-luck, handsome!

EARLE C. BROWN popular Chicago collector still confined to bed, more than a year now. Earl likes to hear from his old friends—he's at Lakeview Home, 6330 Sheridan Road, Chicago, Illinois.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT COMMEMORATIVE Half Dollars proposed for 1958. Referred to Senate Banking and Currency Committee—will probably be pigeon-holed until the paper turns yellow. Too bad, we can't get some favorable action on coins as is prevalent in philatelic department.

IF WORM TURNS and Commemoratives are approved, let us not forget that the practices of the Boone Commission and the Booker T. Washington repeats (not to neglect the Oregon, Texas, and Arkansas) did much to create the official frown towards new designs.

ED GANS IN EUROPE for a spell, visiting old haunts and representing Professional Numismatists Guild members at the International Congress in Vienna.

COIN GRADING ARTICLE (recent Numismatist) stirred up a lot of correspondence. "Hit the Nail on the Head" sums it up.

DID I FORGET? Recent visits with Edgar Levy, Phil Whiteley, Hewitt Judd, Loyd Gettys en route East were loads of fun.

AND CHICAGO COIN CLUB meeting coincided with 2 day stay in Windy City so extended cordial invitation to all to come to L.A. for the August Big Show—and incidentally acquired an auction consignment of importance.

CUTIE ABOUT PRESIDENT of one of the National Banks who used to travel around with uncut sheets of his bank's money, signed by his cashier but not by him. Had a bell-hop deliver something, then pretend no change. "Just a minute" he would say. Taking an uncut sheet, he would cut off one note, sign it. "Here, get me some change." It never failed—within an hour he would have a police or FBI contact.
